We left at a quarter of nine this morning for Robert Gérard's place near Rambouillet. The Weickers, Jean Hottinguer, the Scaifes, and quite a few others were there. We had a fine day's shooting and saw lots of game. We killed 75 partridges, 18 hares, half a dozen pigeons, and a golden plover.

We got back to Paris late this evening and had dinner with Josephine Forbes, who has just arrived from Vienna for a stay with us.
